

Autumnal dahlia

This dahlia is currently flowering in a garden in our village, as it has at this time for at least the last six years or so. An internet search suggests it is D. 'Show and Tell'. It is fully 2m tall, with football-sized blooms. Admittedly, it benefits from a new layer of home-made compost mulch each year.